

OPEN CALL-FLAK OFF

OFF program parallel to the Vienna ArtWeek, April 2007

With the exhibition project FLAK OFF we want to show and discuss the very important role the OFF scene represents in contemporary art today. It will take place during Vienna Artweek in April 2007.

FLAK OFF takes on the task of creating a representative platform for independent art spaces, OFF-spaces and their work.

FLAK OFF tries to show and investigate the Status Quo of diverse positions, trends and approaches of the contemporary OFF-art scene in one location, and thus to highlight its significance, diversity and vibrancy.

The Flakleitturm in the municipal Arenbergpark, Vienna, opens up the possibility of offering each OFF-institution a separate space on two levels with 28 existing rooms. Their usage as exhibition spaces is entirely free: for example documentation of work as an off space institution so far, show cases of up and running exhibitions, information points, etc...

Supporting acts will not only include performances and music events, but also discussions, lectures, and a possibility of exchange concerning topics surrounding the OFF-scene during the Vienna Artweek.

We would like to invite all Off-institutions, art spaces, art formations etc. to take part in this upcoming project and to send us an excerpt, which should contain following material:

- Name, Tel, email, contact address
- general concept and orientation of institution
- documentation of activity so far (selection)
- concept/intention for participation in FLAK OFF

Please send all material as PDF via email to flakoff@flakturm.net
Date of viewing (guide through the Flakturm): 05.03 2007, 6 p.m.
Dapontegasse/Dannebergplatz, 1030 Wien
Deadline for application: 10.03.2007
For further information: <http://flakturm.net>